

Interim Chief Executive of West Yorkshire Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner (up to two years)

Salary: £100,000 per annum.

West Yorkshire's Police and Crime Commissioner (PCC), Mark Burns-Williamson, is seeking to recruit an Interim Chief Executive to work with him to continue to make a real difference to the lives of people across communities in West Yorkshire.

A proven leader, advocate and advisor, you will ensure, working together with the PCC, partners, West Yorkshire Police and our communities, the delivery of the PCC's vision and priorities as set out in the Police and Crime Plan. The Interim Chief Executive is also the Monitoring Officer with legal responsibilities for the decision framework of the Commissioner.

Reporting to the Police and Crime Commissioner, you will work closely with the Deputy Police and Crime Commissioner and the Treasurer, to contribute to the effective delivery of the Police and Crime Plan and be accountable for service delivery at local, regional and national levels.

This appointment requires an outstanding team player who possesses excellent communication and influencing skills and is adept at building strong working relationships which inspire and engage.

With proven experience to influence and lead stakeholders, you will help to build on and deliver sustainable partnerships to improve wider community safety outcomes.

Strategically astute you will be a collaborative team builder, with an ability and vision to take the organisation through the next stage in its development and beyond.

The successful candidate will demonstrate a proven track record of strategic planning and change management in a complex organisation and environment, combined with a thorough and deep understanding of the legislative, governance, performance and financial framework of public services and a demonstrable ability to practically apply these successfully.

The ability to work effectively at regional and national levels in helping secure the best outcomes for the PCC's West Yorkshire vision in fulfilling the duties of the post is essential.

The ability to travel around the region and the country, to fulfil the duties of the post, is essential.
